These informal discussions will take place as a Zoom virtual meeting. In the days leading up to each discussion, you will receive an invitation email to register and obtain the Zoom link and a call-in number. Best of all, there's no cost to participate. You can also find the link on the NIRMA website under the Events menu.

We encourage county clerks, county attorneys, HR and supervisory personnel, as well as all other officials who oversee employees to participate in these informative and helpful monthly roundtable discussions with Pam and Ashley.
