Thursday, November 19, 2020

Featuring Attorney Brandy Johnson
Governmental Law, LLC

Since 2008, Brandy has been providing knowledgeable and expert legal guidance to NIRMA members and representing them in a variety of civil litigation matters.

Each day seems to bring a new or developing issue for local government officials to contend with. From new regulations to recent court decisions to the latest trends sweeping across the country, it is imperative local officials stay up-to-date.

This webinar will examine a number of timely topics that are confronting NIRMA member county and agency officials, including:

- a recent Nebraska Supreme Court decision addressing tree cutting by county road departments;
- litigation involving county zoning decisions;
- handi-bus operations and ADA considerations for seat belt use;
- recent developments related to law enforcement;
- considerations public officials must keep in mind when entering into contractual agreements;
- answers to specific questions you may have regarding other issues you're seeing.
